Dear President,

Cornwall Council has created a document titled 'The Case for Cornwall' which would give the Council more powers including to raise more tax.

The Council is barely consulting and we think this is wrong. We have launched this special survey to get a better understanding of your views so that we can reach the best outcome for Cornwall.

Please take just five minutes to get your views heard.

Many thanks,

John Keeling

Have your say....

1. Do you want the Council to have the power to raise Council Tax above the Government cap (currently 2 %) without a public referendum ? (please tick)

Yes
 No
 Don't know

2. The British Medical Association says the Welsh Health Service is in risk of 'imminent meltdown'. Do you think Cornwall can run health services better than NHS?

Yes
 No
 Don't know

3. Cornwall Council keeps the business rates from renewable energy installations. Do you support more wind and solar parks?

Yes
 No
 Don't know

4. The Council wants more compulsory purchase powers and the power to build "new towns". Are local views listened to sufficiently on new housing developments?

Yes
 No
 Don't know

5. The Council want Cornwall to have its own Authority to run Public Transport. Is it important to run a trial project first ?

Yes
 No
 Don't know

6. The Council want Cornwall to have its own Flood Authority, Heritage body etc. Should the Council get the funding first before taking on new powers?

Yes
 No
 Don't know

7. The Council wants to keep bits of various taxes (like VAT and Stamp Duty) and to be 'rewarded' if it creates new jobs. Is it better just to ask for fair funding for Cornwall?

Yes
 No
 Don't know

The Council decides which new powers to ask for on 21st July. Please tick the box if you are able to help us distribute this survey.

I would like to help

What is your top priority for Cornwall?

Please give any other feedback on Cornwall Council.
